LIM College

Peer-to-Peer File Sharing Policy

LIM College complies with the provisions of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA). It is illegal, as described in the Federal law (Title 17 of the US Code, and more recently the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 105 PL 304), to download, upload, or distribute in any fashion, copyrighted material, in any form without permission or a license to do so from the copyright holder.

Therefore, LIM College does not allow the reproduction and distribution of copyrighted material. LIM College expects each member of the community to use LIM College's information technology resources responsibly, ethically, and in compliance with the Policy, relevant laws, and all contractual obligations to third parties. The holders of copyright possess the exclusive right to authorize reproduction and distribution which all faculty, students, and employees must adhere to.

The use of LIM College's information technology resources is a privilege. If a member of the community fails to comply with this Policy or relevant laws and contractual obligations, that member's privilege to access and use LIM College's information technology resources may be revoked.

LIM College will attempt to further enforce this policy by utilizing next-generation technologies and firewalls as means of enhanced security through application, network, and system visibility and access control.
